Dear Scout:

We've just heard that you have an "Appointment with Adventure!"

Now that you've registered for Summer Camp you can be sure you'll get your share of thrills and fun, but be certain you're prepared for them. Most Scouts find Summer Camp doubly enjoyable when they take along a complete pack of Official Scout Equipment.

The Boy Scout Trading Post asked a group of old time expert campers -- men who know the meaning of outdoor adventure -- to make a list of recommended Scout Equipment for Summer Camp. Their suggestions are listed below and are carried in stock at the Boy Scout Trading Post along with anything else you may need for Scouting. Use this list to check your equipment for camp -- visit the Trading Post and stock up.
